

PROGRAM

New Strategy Center, in partnership with The National Association for Information Systems Security, organizes the debate with the title:

“Risks, Challenges and Opportunities of the Payment Systems in Romania”

The event takes place on Wednesday, March 30, from 10,00 to 14,30, at the National Military Club, Marmura Room, Constantin Mille Entrance.

Schedule:

10.00 – 10.05 Event opening: Mr. Ionel Nițu, president of New Strategy Center,

10.05 – 10.10 Forward: Mr. Mihai Buia, member of New Strategy Center, moderator

10.10 – 10.30 Mr. Bogdan Olteanu, deputy governor NBR: ‘Radiography on the payments systems in Romania’,

10.30 – 11.15 Mr. Radu Ghețea, president of honour The Romanian Banking Association, president of CEC Bank, Mr. Daniel Popescu, manager IT&Security, Unicredit Bank, Mr. Toma Cîmpeanu, executive manager The National Association for Information Systems Security – ‘Risks and threats over the payment systems in Romania’,

11.15 – 11.30 Mrs Carmen Elian, state secretary, the Ministry for Communications and Information Society: ‘Evaluation norms and methodologies of the electronic payment systems’,

11.30 – 11.45 Mr. Laurențiu Dumitru Andrei, deputy general manager, The Ministry of Finance - ‘Electronic payments and their deployment on the Public Treasury level’

11.45 – 12.00 Mrs. Delia Popescu, president, The Agency for Romania’s Digital Agenda: ‘The vivification of electronic payments channels usage’

12.00 – 12.15 Mr. Cătălin Crețu, CEO Visa Romania: ‘Problems and solutions for using electronic payments channels’

12.15 – 12.30 Mr. Adrian Apolzan, former president of the Romanian Association for Electronic Payments: ‘Improved relationship between institutions and citizens’

12.30 – 13.15 Open discussions.

13.15 – 14.14.30 Lunch

Ionel Nițu

President New Strategy Center

