

Iulian FOTA

Between 1994 and 1996, Mr. Iulian Fota was a Parliamentary expert on European issues and international relations. Then he became a Government Advisor in the Department for Euro-Atlantic Integration and Defense Policy, Ministry of National Defense.

In 1998 he became the Chief of the military department of the Romanian Mission to NATO and EU, Brussels. Between 2009 and 2014, he was a presidential advisor on national security issues. Since 2009, he is teaching at the “Dimitrie Cantemir” Christian University.