

Teodor MELEȘCANU

Graduated the Law Faculty of the University of Bucharest (1964).

Ph. D. in international law of the University of Geneva (Switzerland) in 1973.

Diplomat at the Foreign Ministry of Romania (1966-1996). Rank of ambassador.

Minister for Foreign Affairs of Romania (1992-1996, 2014 and 2017-2019).

Minister for Defence (2007-2008).

Director of the Foreign Intelligence Service of Romania (2012-2014).

State Counselor for Defence and Security, Government of Romania (2015).

Member of the United Nations Commission for International Law in the period 1997-2012.

Professor of international law and political sciences at the National School for Political Studies and Administration (Bucharest).

Author of books and articles on international law, diplomacy, defence and security.